

The opportunity

We are looking for committed Trustees to help take our charity forward.

The organisation

Streatham Youth And Community Trust (SYCT) is a local charity established in 1946 which provides high quality youth services and facilities to the young people of Streatham. SYCT meets the needs of the local community through the provision of a wide range of activities focusing on education and training, personal development, support for disadvantaged groups, sports and the arts. We are the only dedicated full time provider of youth services in our area.

Our vision is to raise aspiration, reduce isolation, create stronger relationships and empower young people, their families and the wider community.

Benefits to the volunteer:

The experience and the satisfaction from contributing to the management of a local charity committed to helping young people, their families and building a stronger community.

Skills/Experience

The charity is looking for individuals with knowledge in the following areas:

- Financial, legal and Governance matters
- Understanding of voluntary and youth sector
- Fundraising & Marketing
- Human Resources & Information Technology
- Local area knowledge
- Facilities Management

Time Commitment

The Board of Trustees meets four times a year. In addition, Trustees will take part in sub committees related to their interests and experience. They will also be required to attend other scheduled events.

Location

The charity has two sites in Streatham, The John Corfield Centre on Conyers Road, SW16 6LS and The Wellfield Centre on 16 Wellfield Road, SW16 2BP
